- VIII. Vermillion County Comp Report Reviewed. ^{James} ~~Castello~~ would like to see two added lines to the report; one showing “paid up to date” and the second “HWY paid out comp time”
- IX. Sheriff Commissary Report. Report reviewed, no questions.
- X. Old Business NA
- XI. New Business
- a. Mike Holtkamp- Discusses the water bill as it keeps rising and is continuously having to request for additional. Will request enough to get through the rest of 2025. Council would like to see the bills as the water company would change the rates randomly, per Brenda Furry. Will take this into consideration when budgeting for 2026 Sheriff Budgets.

- b. Removed from Agenda
- c. Amend the Salary Ordinance for the Courthouse Security and Assessor part-time deputy 2025-08

Furry Motions to accept the changes to the amended salary resolution 2025-08
Weir Seconds
All in favor, motion carries

- d. Jason Semler- BakerTilly speaks about the new SB1 going over the Property Taxes and other legislation on future county taxes and revenues. Shares with Council the changes made to legislation that will affect the county's portion of the property taxes and how it will affect the property owners and personal property owners.
- e. George Sanquinetti- Vermillion County Heritage Alliance, County Historian. Wants to update the council on the markers he is trying to get from the state. There has been delays and still working on getting them. He has been working on trying to get the markers since 2024.
- f. Budget Agreement for Cox, Zwerner, Gambill & Sullivan

Furry motions to accept agreement
Summerville Seconds
All in favor, motion carries.

XII. Public Comment – No Comment

Announcement by Rick Weir requested that everyone fill out the form that was passed out for the Vermillion County Mitigation Plan. There is a second meeting being held July 24th and would like to see all board members make the meeting, at 6pm.
